

P
C A S

Call for Proposals

SAVANNAH, GEORGIA

OCTOBER 7-9, 2010

A
C A S

The Popular Culture Association in the South and the American Culture Association in the South meet every year to present and discuss ideas about popular culture, American and world-wide. Here is a sampling of topic areas at last year's meeting: film, mass media, sports, myths, utopias, feminist and gender studies, religion, insanity, identity, humor, horror, literature, social history, cookbooks, rhetoric, aspects of material culture, consumerism, vampirism, military history. We encourage panels organized around one issue or theme. The program chairs will be glad to help you with that.

Papers are limited to twenty (20) minutes or less. All submissions will be acknowledged. Please send an abstract of at least 200 words, and with it your e-mail address and cell phone or land line number to pcasacas2010@gmail.com

(Submission deadline: June 1, 2010)

If you will need audio-visual support, please note that need on your abstract. We can only schedule overhead or DVD/VCR w/monitor. No LCD projectors will be available. If you have any questions about any aspect of the October conference, please contact one of the Program Co-Chairs:

Dennis Hall: dennis.hall@louisville.edu

Tom Van: tavan@digicove.com

Since the Savannah conferences are unusually popular, we encourage you to submit your abstract and register for the conference and at the conference hotel, the Marriott, early.

The Marriott Savannah Riverfront

100 General McIntosh Blvd

Savannah, GA 31401

912-233-7722

Reservation deadline: September 6, 2010

We welcome submissions from graduate and undergraduate students. We award a prize for the best student papers both in American Culture Studies and Popular Culture Studies. Please make your student status clear on your abstract and registration form.

For more association, conference, and journal information, or to submit a proposal on-line, visit the PCAS/ACAS website:

www.pcasacas.org

For registration information, contact the PCAS/ACAS Executive Secretary, Diane Calhoun-French at (502) 213-2621 or diane.calhoun-french@kctes.edu