CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Popular Culture Association in the South and the American Culture Association in the South meet every year to present and discuss ideas about popular culture, American and world-wide. Here is a sampling of topic areas at last year's meeting: the graphic novel, health "perils," Poe and Twain, gumshoes and detective novels, ridicule and satire, film and memory, punk, hip-hop and blues, utopian thinking, sexual prescriptions and taboos, women and the you-tube, cult films, theorizing Sci-Fi films, advertising, Tiger Woods, vampires, zombies, and cooking.

We encourage panels organized around one issue or theme. The Program Co-chairs will be glad to help you with that, but panel proposals need to include the institutional affiliation, e-mail address and cell-phone or landline number of each participant. If any panel members are students, please make that clear.

(submission deadline: June 1, 2011)

Audio-visual needs. Please make those needs clear on your abstract. There will be only DVD/VCR w/monitor in the section rooms. The conference cannot afford to provide computer projectors in these rooms, but the website will have information about ways of getting a laptop file onto the TV monitor. For information about how to adapt Power Point and other modes of presentation, go to Technical Advice on the website.

Registration information will be on the website. For any registration/participation question, contact the PCAS/ACAS Executive Secretary, Diane Calhoun-French, at diane.calhoun-french@kctcs.edu or (502) 213-2621.
